Welcome to AIISH – From the Desk of the Director

The All India Institute of Speech and Hearing (AIISH) is a premier Institute offering programmes related to communication disorders. AIISH was established in the year 1966, fully funded by the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India. The major objectives of the Institute are man power generation in the area of communication and its disorders, rendering clinical services, conducting research and educating the public on issues related to communication disorders.

The Institute, with the aim of capacity building in the area of communication disorders, offers different programmes. These include three diploma programmes [Diploma in Hearing Aid & Ear mould Technology, Diploma in Early Childhood Special Education (Hearing Impairment) and Diploma in Hearing Language and Speech-through video conferencing mode]; two undergraduate programmes [Bachelor of Audiology and Speech Language Pathology (B.ASLP) and Bachelor of Education Special Education (Hearing Impairment)]; three post graduate programmes M.Sc. (Speech-Language Pathology), [M.Sc. (Audiology) and M.Ed. Spl. Ed. (Hearing Impairment)]. In addition, it offers five Ph.D. programmes [Audiology, Speech-Language Pathology, Speech and Hearing, Special Education and Linguistics] and a Post-Doctoral Fellowship.

Situated in a lush green campus of 30 acres adjacent to the University of Mysore in Manasagangothri, Mysuru, Karnataka, it is a unique Institute in the Asian sub-continent. Its eleven departments/centres and well equipped Library and Information Centre contribute to its uniqueness. These departments/centres have state-of-the-art facilities to offer inter-disciplinary training to the students.

AIISH caters to clients of all ages having a whole range of communication disorders. The institute attracts students from all over India and abroad. It has strived in the past 56 years in furthering the cause of professions of Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology throughout the country and more recently in the area of Special Education. The enthusiasm to excel in reaching out to individuals with communication disorders knows no boundaries. The institute has been recognized as a Centre of Excellence in the area of Deafness by WHO, as a Centre for Advanced Research and College with Potential for Excellence by UGC, as a Science and Technology Institute by DSIR, DST, as a Centre of Excellence by the Ministry of Health & Family Welfare. The institute has been recognized as a Nodal Centre for the implementation of National Programme for Prevention and Control of Deafness, and Rashtriya Bal Swasthya Karyakram of Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India. Till date, around 2162 students have enrolled for undergraduate programmes and 1668 for postgraduate programmes at AIISH. In addition, 119 doctoral degrees in Speech and Hearing, Speech-Language Pathology, and Audiology have been awarded under the able guidance of the faculty of the institute. Further, in order to keep up with the changing trends across the world, the faculty undergo short-term and long-term training, and faculty enrichment programme.

The AIISH Alumni Association serves as a forum for exchange of ideas and social interaction with its past students. AIISH is proud of its alumni who occupy important positions in academic, clinical and administrative setups not only in India but also in different parts of the world. They have made us proud by becoming active members of international societies in the area of speech, language, and hearing.

AIISH is committed to bring out quality professionals who can meet the challenges of helping individuals to overcome the incapacitating effects of their communication disorders. It hopes to set high standards so that future batches of trained professionals always aim to reach new heights. AIISH is sure that our students will make us and the country proud.

Your choice of this profession as a career is highly valued. The institute is confident that your vision of serving persons with communication disorders would be well realized under the able guidance of the faculty and staff of the institute. The AIISH family welcomes you to join us in our endeavour to brighten the lives of individuals with communication disorders. Best wishes for a successful and meaningful career.

also (referred to as the INDEMNIFIED) witnessed as under :-

WHEREAS, the student had made an application for admission to _____ programme during this year 20__ -20__ and having been selected for that programme, has now come forward to get himself / herself admitted by remitting the prescribed fee and by complying with all other incidental terms and conditions, and

WHEREAS, the Society which has started various programmes has to incur considerable expenditure on establishment, faculty, equipments, specialised services, payment of stipends and fellowships to students, etc., and

WHEREAS, the Society in the past had come across several instances,

- a) of students dropping out of the programme, after getting admission, but before the commencement of academic activities, thus providing a chance for filling-up of the seat so vacated by them:
- b) of students dropping out of the programme, after commencement of academic activities, in the middle of the programme, thus stalling the entry of any other student against that seat for the duration of the entire programmes;

- c) of students successfully, completing the programme, but failing to fulfil the conditions of rendering prescribed compulsory service;
- d) of students joining different programmes under Self-Financing Scheme and dropping out of the programme either after getting admission and before the commencement of academic activities and thus providing a chance for filling up of the seats so vacated by them; or after commencement of academic activities but in the middle of the programme, thus stalling the entry of any other student against that seat for the duration of the entire programme, causing not only financial loss to the institute, but also loss in terms of depriving the society qualified personnel for rendering services, as well as offering sub-standard service (while lacking qualifications to serve)* and

WHEREAS, to ensure that students who earnestly aspire for a career in Speech & Hearing alone join the programme and thus put an end to the contemplated loss in terms of money to the Institute and in terms of qualified personnel to serve the society, thought it fit to insist upon execution of an INDEMNITY BOND from the students seeking admission to the programmes along with sureties, NOW THEREFORE, this Indemnity Bond witnessed

- 1) That in the event of the student withdrawing from the programme and seeking cancellation of his/her admission, before the closure of admission for the current academic year and the seat so vacated by him/her is filled-up by another student in the waiting list, he shall forego all payments made by him/her to the Institute and the University and shall also be liable to pay an additional sum of Rs.5,000/- by way of nominal liquidated damages towards the inconvenience caused to the Institute.
- 2) That in the event of the student withdrawing from the programme and seeking cancellation of his/her admission, for whatever reason, after the closure of admission for the academic year, and thus stalling the entry of any other student against that seat for the duration of the entire programme, he/she shall forego all payments made by him/her to the Institute and the University and shall also be liable to repay the entire sum drawn by him/her as stipend/fellowship up to the date of cancellation of his /her admission and shall also be liable to pay an additional sum of * Rs._____by way of liquidated damages towards the loss caused to the Institute, i.e., reduction in the seat for the programme permanently, thereby impairing the full intake of students for the whole duration of the programme.
- 3) That in the event of a student admitted to any of the programmes under Self-Financing Scheme, withdrawing from the programme and seeking cancellation of his/her admission, before the closure of admission for the current academic year and the seat so vacated by him/her, is filled up by another student in the waiting list, he shall forego all payments made by him/her in the Institute and the University and shall also be liable to pay an additional sum of Rs. 5,000/- by way of nominal liquidated damages towards the inconvenience caused to the institute.
- 4) That in the event of a student admitted to any of the programmes under Self-Financing Scheme, withdrawing from the programmes and seeking cancellation of his/her admission, for whatever reason, after the closure of admission for the academic year and thus stalling the entry of any other student against that seat for the duration of the entire programme, he/she shall forego all payments made by him/her to the Institute and the University and shall also be liable to repay the entire sum drawn by him/her as stipend/fellowship up to the date of cancellation of his/her admission and shall also be liable to pay an additional sum equivalent to the outstanding balance of fee payable by him/her under the Self-Financing Scheme and a sum of *Rs._____by way of liquidated damages towards the loss caused to the Institute, i.e., reduction in the seat for the programme permanently thereby impairing the full intake of the students for the whole duration of the programme.

- 5) That in the event of the student refusing to serve the society i.e., All India institute of Speech and Hearing, Mysore or any other Government Organization, located in India for a period of one year, if required to do so, within a period of one year after qualifying himself/herself for full registration, he/she shall be liable to repay the entire sum drawn by him/her during the tenure of the programme, as stipend/fellowship and also liable to pay an additional sum of *Rs._____by way of liquidated damages towards the inconvenience caused to the Institute.
- 6) That in the event of the society or any other Government organisation not indenting upon the services of the student within a period of one year after his completion of the programme, the liability of the Indemnifiers under this bond shall come to an end.
- 7) That in the event of any unreasonable delay in making payment of the amounts stipulated under this Bond, the Indemnifiers shall be liable to pay interest on that amount at the rate of _____% per annum or at such rates that may be specified by the institute.
- 8) That the Indemnifier referred to as earlier shall be jointly and severally liable to pay to the Institute the liquidated damages spelt-out above.
- 9) That the Director of the Institute shall have discretion of waiving either part or full amount of liquidated damages payable by the Indemnifiers under this Bond, for reasons to be recorded in writing. In this context, either the student or the sureties can make a written representation with supporting documents, explaining how they are entitled to invoke this clause to urge for waiver of their liability to pay liquidated damages.
- 10) That the students as well as the Sureties, who have furnished their respective addresses as detailed earlier, shall keep the Institute informed of any change in their address, which shall be recorded by the Institute. Any notice sent by the Institute either to the address of the Indemnifiers noted hereinabove or to their changed address and shall bind the Indemnifiers to fix-up consequential liability under this Bond. In case, the Indemnifiers were to commit the default in reporting their changed address, additional effort for the Institute to trace their correct address, they shall be liable to pay additional damages of Rs.10,000/- to the Society.

11) That any decision that may be taken by the Director of the Institute, as to breach of any obligation imposed on the student or as to the amount of liquidated damages payable by him, shall be final and binding on all the Indemnifiers. It is made clear that the decision of the Society, as to whether the student has or has not performed and observed all the conditions and covenants and obligations imposed upon him, shall be final and binding on the parties to this Indemnity Bond.

12) That the undertaking given to the Indemnifiers herein shall not be construed merely as a personal undertaking, but it shall be binding on the respective heirs, administrators, successors, etc., who may inherit any property of the Indemnifiers.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Indemnifiers and the INDEMNIFIED have hereto affixed their signatures to this Indemnity Bond, in the presence of under mentioned witness:

The All India Institute of Speech and Hearing (AIISH), a centre of excellence in the field of communication disorders, was established on 10th October 1966 as an autonomous organisation fully funded by the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India. The major objectives of the institute are to impart professional training, conduct research, render clinical services and educate the public on issues related to communication disorders. Situated in a lush green campus of 32 acres in Manasagangothri, Mysuru, it is a unique institute in the South Asian sub-continent with its eleven departments with state-of-art facilities and a library and information centre.

AIISH is recognised as a reputed organisation for training manpower in the field of speech and hearing and related areas throughout the country. Established primarily as a training institute, it started training programmes at postgraduate level in 1966 followed by B.Sc. (Speech and Hearing) which followed in 1967. The institute now offers three Diploma Programmes: Diploma in Hearing Aid and Ear-Mould Technology (DHA & ET), Diploma in Early Childhood Special Education – Hearing Impairment (DECSE-HI), and Diploma in Hearing, Language and Speech (DHLS) through video conferencing mode; two Graduate Programmes: Bachelor of Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology (BASLP) and B.Ed. Special Education (HI); four PG Diploma Programmes: PG Diploma in Forensic Speech Sciences and Technology (PGFSST), PG Diploma in Clinical Linguistics for SLP (PGDCL SLP), PG Diploma in Neuro Audiology (PGDNA), PG Diploma in Augmentative and Alternative Communication (PGDAAC), three Masters Programmes: M.Sc. in Audiology, M.Sc. in Speech-Language Pathology and M.Ed. Special Education (HI); three Doctoral Programmes: Ph.D. in Audiology Ph.D. in Speech-Language Pathology, Ph.D. in Speech & Hearing and a Post Doctoral Fellowship. The institute also conducts short term training and orientation programmes for professionals in allied specialities.

The Institute has been recognised as a Centre of Excellence in the Area of Deafness (WHO), Centre for Advanced Research (UGC), Science and Technology Institute (DST), Centre of Excellence (Ministry of Health and Family Welfare); College with Potential for Excellence (UGC) obtained 'A' grade on NAAC and is ISO certified. The academic programmes of the institute have the recognition of Rehabilitation Council of India, a statutory body in the area of rehabilitation sciences and are affiliated to the University of Mysore for the award of degrees.
