

Major Activities – Outreach centres

Publication wing/Library and Information Centre

- To develop public awareness material through various modalities in the area of communication disorders.
- To work for the dissemination of information to the public.

Centre for public education in communication disorders

To conduct public awareness programs and develop training materials for public education in the field of speech, language, and hearing through audio/ video modes, talks and e-learning.